

paged.js

How to use Paged.js

The big picture 1

What is Paged.js?

W3C specifications

A community

Getting Started with Paged.js 2

Starting Paged.js

Using Paged.js as a polyfill in web browsers

Command line version

W3C specifications for printing 3

W3C CSS modules

Support of W3C specifications in browsers

Which browser to use?

How Paged.js works Donate 4

The Chunker: fragmenting the content

The Polisher: polyfilling the print declarations

The Previewer: rendering the paginated document

Web design for print 5

The @media print query

@page rule

Page size property

CSS variables

Margin size property

Facing pages or recto/verso

Page breaks

Pseudo class selectors for pages

Bleeds

Crop and cross marks

Code Review for a chapter

Generated Content 6

The content property

Generated text

Generated counters

Generated images

Generated links

Generated content for paged media

Donate

Generated Content in Margin Boxes 7

Margin boxes of a page

Page Counter

Named String: classical running headers/footers

 Select content of string-set

 Styling named string

Running elements: headers/footer with specific (complex) content

 Styling running elements

Select element of the page for running title/headers

Delete generated content in blank page

Styling margin boxes and generated content

 Default alignment of generated content

 Applying style on generated content

 Define width and height of margin boxes

 Rotate margin boxes

Rendering of margin boxes with Paged.js

 Margin boxes on the page

 Group of margin boxes

 Generated content into the margin boxes

 Computation Rules for group of margin boxes

Named Page 8

Mix page selectors and named pages

Priority of @page rules

Donate

Cross References	9
Link targeted
Target-counter()
Target-text()
Debug
Handlers, Hooks and custom javascript	10
Modules
Some examples
cleaning hyperlinks for the print
Adding a class to an image based on its ratio
Supported feature of the W3C specifications	11
Releases & downloads	12
Releases
Guides and How-tos from the journal	13
Build An Index With Pagedjs
Build a Table of Contents from your HTML

Paged.js is maintained by the nice folks at Cabbage Tree Labs

Donate